Deception

Deception. What a powerful word. CHRIST warned us in Matthew 24:4 “Take heed that no one deceive you.” Things are not always as they appear. I have a picture of Hitler coming out of a church, and even satan used The Bible; so expect his ministers to use the talk of Christianity, the form of faith, but denying its power. Learn to look into the soul of a man, to test the heart of a woman, to know the spirit of the matter. Test the spirits, 1 John 4:1-4, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. They have come to deceive, lie, and appear other than they really are. Be careful, be wise, be wary. They will try to steal your money and your soul. They will take whatever they can get, and they are playing for keeps. This is no game to them, for the stakes are very high, as high as they can be. Do not be deceived. Check everything out, everything, against The Word of GOD. Ask GOD to give you wise Christian counselors, friends. People of impeccable integrity. People who know how to pray. People whose only motives are to serve GOD and to help you succeed in every area of life. Trust The Holy Spirit. Learn to discern, Hebrews 5:14. Do not be naïve. Do not be simple-minded. Study, pray. Study, pray. Watch. Be observant. Be vigilant. You are in a war zone. We are in a fight, whether you want to be or not. Satan is coming to kill you, steal from you, and to destroy you. He will do whatever he can; whatever you let him do. Whether wittingly or unwittingly, you give him entrance. Throw him out, Ephesians 4:27. Shut the door. Get close to GOD. Close ranks with believers. Be wise. Do not be deceived, anymore.

The Heart of The Matter

Isaiah 60:1 Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and The Glory of THE LORD is risen upon thee.”

GOD has not forgotten you. HE has not left you. Reach for HIM, take hold of HIM. Never let HIM go. HE will be better than your best dreams, greater than your wildest imaginations. Learn HIS Ways, trust HIM, rest in HIM. With GOD, everything, everything is going to be alright!.

Lies

Misrepresents the truth; masquerading in its clothes, being other than what it really is. We are commanded not to lie, Exodus 5:20. GOD is a GOD of truth, and HE fully defines truth, John 14:6. People lie for all the wrong reasons, and no matter what they may even temporarily gain, it will all one day, if not sooner as well; all be lost. For it’s foundation is false. A lie is false by definition, thus whatever one wants to build upon it, cannot last, for the house is built on sand. When you build something on truth, the truth of whatever GOD says, it will last. Ecclesiastes 3:14. What are you now saying? What are you now doing? Is it of the truth? Is it predicated on a lie? Any falsehood, anything less than the truth is not the truth. Do not lie to GOD. Do not lie to yourself; and do not lie to others. Be a man of truth. Your story will always be the same. People can rely on you. Your family will trust you. And GOD will honor you. Build a life that will last forever.

Appearances

One of the key weapons of Deception is appearances. It is used to deceive the eyes and the senses. It is purposeful in its misleading, and has a plan for your ultimate destruction, to render you useless, a castaway, ineffective. If the salt loses its saltiness it will be good for nothing, Matthew 5:13. And now let’s make it personal as well. How often do we use appearances to appear other than we are? To make someone like us? To appear other than we really are? This is disingenuous. It truly misrepresents, it is false. Then, even if you for the moment, ‘succeed’, it actually works against you. Because the you that got the job, the date, the tickets... is not you, you are living through some appearance you made, and you are lost along the way. You will never really succeed; ever. 2 Corinthians 13:8

For HIS Glory

Did you know where Jesus was for 18 years, from age 12 to about 30? Many cults and false religions purport that JESUS was in America, in the far east, even in England. HE was in none of those places at that time. Can we prove that Scripturally? Yes, of course. And it gets easy when we see The Bible, through Hebrew eyes. Note Luke 4:14-16 (especially 16). JESUS enters a synagogue to teach as HE opens HIS public ministry. Verse 16, has 4 key words to help us: “as was HIS custom.” HE was used to being in the synagogue, as Jews had to keep The Sabbath, attend weekly gatherings, keep all the holy Days, and come up to Jerusalem 3 times a year. JESUS lived as a Torah observant Jew, in Israel, going to services, “as was HIS custom.”

“And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according to what he has done.”

Your Hebrew Lesson

The Hebrew Word for Truth is: Emet. Is is formed of the three letters: aleph-mem-tav. The first and last letter of truth = emet, is The Aleph and The Tav, which are the first and last letters of The Hebrew alphabet. JESUS is both The First and The Last and HE is The Truth, Revelation 22:13, John 14:6. The truth is critical, it is foundational, and Scripture so notes it as such: “The head of Your Word is Truth...” Psalm 119:160. Being a man of GOD, one must be a man of truth. Having integrity implies being truthful, someone that there is not duplicity, one is not Janus faced. The truth is so exacting and it is so uncompromising that if you were to even take one letter, the aleph away from the word truth, you would be left with the word mate = corpse, dead. Don't touch it!

What do you say when Something must be said but you do not quite know what to say? Start speaking, but first pray, pray. Ask GOD, according to HIS Word, Matthew 10:19-20, to give you The Words to speak, that must be said, that need be said, that you are willing to say, but need to know what to say. Then trust HIM, and start speaking. Trust Him; trust HIM actively. When GOD told Moses ‘stop crying out to ME, Exodus 14:13-18, the people were to have faith though not in The Promised Land, they were to have trust, because GOD was with them, they were to believe in GOD, not look at the situation with the eyes of man. GOD always has HIS Way of doing things. Let us learn HIS Ways, and understand HIS Thoughts. And by HIS Spirit we can, to the degree it is possible, it is possible. Live for HIM to live. Speak up, but only with HIM.
