Don't rest on your laurels

Do not rest on your laurels. This is a common mistake and will take you ever farther from your true goal. All the good that you have done is good, but do not stop there. We are to go from glory to glory, not rest and stop and talk about the 'good old days.' First, you're not done; you're still here. And if you're done, and still here, ask GOD what needs to be done here; why, say, for another tour of duty! There is nothing like serving The King of Glory. Nothing! To live for HIM, to die for HIM, to go to the ends of the earth, or across the street to an estranged brother, anything. Just talking about 'yesterday' and your successes, you are then often missing the moment today in serving, while tomorrow is becoming today as you live in your past. Do not rest on your laurels. Do not rest on anything, rest in HIM as you work for HIM. Interestingly enough, as you truly work in and for HIM it will give you a true rest in HIM. This is something that must be experienced; it's sublimity. Another reason not to rest on your laurels is that it is often used as an excuse why you are not doing what you should be doing today for GOD. Your failures of today are in your face, so you talk about your successes yesterday for some assurance that you are 'alright.' Or that it is even enough that you have succeeded in the past, that is why it is okay to give up to now, and not continue. Your age, your weight, your height, your skin color, your ethnicity, your family, your spouse, your kids, your lack of family, you're single, you're divorced, name it... fill in the blank.. They are excuses, though they may be real, they are not holding you back without your permission. Let them go. Take that grip and hold on to your future. Forget your past mistakes, forget your past victories, Live here, live now; live. Live in the future. Press in and drive on!!

The Heart of The Matter

Isaiah 60:1 Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and The Glory of THE LORD is risen upon thee.”

GOD has not forgotten you. HE has not left you. Reach for HIM, take hold of HIM. Never let HIM go. HE will be better than your best dreams, greater than your wildest imaginations. Learn HIS Ways, trust HIM, rest in HIM. With GOD, everything, everything is going to be alright!.

Accomplishing

‘To accomplish, to complete, to finish, what a wonderful and demanding word; but The Work must get done. Take The Perfect example, JESUS, as seen in John 17:4: “ I have glorified YOU on earth and have finished The Work that YOU gave ME to do.” What a feeling! What a Truth!

How wonderful! This is a fulfilled life: to absolutely glorify GOD here, on earth, amongst the people, in the world, before man, so it can be seen, known, heard, touched, felt, and experienced, and to say that you actually finished, yes, truly finished, according to GOD, not man. One must of course first know what GOD requires and desires of you; and this you should, for it is what you were born to do. Everything else feels foreign by comparison; this makes sense, even if at times it seems so only to you. Do it, accomplish it, and do it before men, so they see GOD’s Work at work through you, to bless them, and they will glorify GOD in heaven.

Occupying

“..Occupy till I come.” Luke 19:13. YESHUA spoke to HIS OWN followers, students, HIS Talmidim. With the parable of a nobleman going away to a far country, HE gifted HIS people, and one day would come back and take an accounting of how

HIS servants spent and utilized what HE had given them in trust. They must occupy. They must be busy. They must be doing business. How long? “Till I return,” JESUS said. We must be busy. Even note that YESHUA chided HIS parents that they should have known that “HE must be about HIS FATHER’s business.” We must occupy. We must be busy. We must be working. But for GOD. In all valid areas of life. GOD wants to bring heaven to earth through HIS people. Be very busy. Occupy.

Did you know

GOD always leads you to victory through our LORD JESUS CHRIST!" 2

Corinthians 2:14 In triumph! GOD always leads us to victory? The problem/question is do you always follow? When we don't, we are not victorious. Then, and be careful here, GOD has another Plan to take you and me from our wayward place to victory though through another yet circuitous route; for example, my people, The Jews, were not taken by a certain route due to not being able to handle potential warfare, GOD took them through another route. And the other route got the faithful to The Promised Land, though through our disobedience and lack of preparedness, the route was albeit quite different than The Ideal. Follow HIM!

Rev 22:12

"And, behold, I am coming quickly; and MY reward is with ME, to give every man according to what he has done."

Your Hebrew Lesson

The Hebrew Word for victory is: Nestach = Nun -Stade-Chet. It has several facets of meanings: victory, perpetuity, forever, and completeness. True victory is one that is complete, lasts forever, into perpetuity; else it is not a true victory but a temporary one of dominance in a situation that has no long lasting effects. Who has won the ballgame? You can only say so at the end of the game, for the score can go back and forth many times over the course of a game, yet the winner is only determined by the final score, the end result, after all is said and done, who really won. GOD gives us the victory. HE has totally secured it at The Cross, is enforcing it through us and by HIS SPIRIT, will come back and sit on HIS Throne and rule for a 1000 years, then have a final judgment, and then only HIS people remain. Will you be one?

What do you say when

You are misunderstood? Make you case, defend your position without being defensive, on occasion go on the offensive without being offensive. Look to move everyone forward without manipulation, but with understanding. Give it time, everyone's at a different place, most everyone thinks they're right or wants to believe that they're right, while a few don't care if they're wrong but will push forward with their views anyway. As far as it is possible, be at peace with all men, don't strive, love. Love people. Look to bigger issues, larger frames of reference, remember the good, let a lot of things go; don't waste time on majoring in the minors while minoring in the majors. Have your priorities right. Look to understand to be understood. And if the person does not want to, trust GOD for the best outcome and act accordingly. Expect the better outcome, look for the best. Work it. Do not grow weary in doing good. It is worth it; it is worth every bit of it. Endure to the end.
