

Are The Days Shortened?

No. Doing the Greek N.T., we see the truth.

Mathew 24:15-22. Verse 22”

And except those days be shortened, there shall no flesh be saved, but for the elect's sake, those days will be shortened.”

Mathew 24:15-22. Verse 22”Greek Interlinear:

“And except those days were cut short, no flesh would be saved, but on account of the chosen, those days will be cut short.

Mark 13:20

And unless THE LORD shortened those days, no flesh would be saved, but on account of the chosen whom HE chose, HE shortened the days.

EkoloBOsev=shortend. Verb-indicative-aorist-passive-third person plural.

Thayers p.353: to cut, mulitate.

Strongs 2856.

Thus by N.T. times, to shorten, abridge, curtail. Mt.24:22, Mk.13:20.

Latin Vulgate: Brevio (brewio)

Renald Showers, in his book “Maranatha, our LORD, Come!” p. 51,

“... the two verbs translated “had shortened” and “hath shortened” in the Mark passage and the verb translated “should be shortened” in the Mathew passage are all in the aorist tense and indicative mood with the augment. Aorist verbs have no time significance except when they are in the indicative mood with the augment. That form is used to express past time.”

To study the augment, see “A Grammar of The Greek N.T. by Dr. A.T. Robertson p.365”. Thus the days were already shortened to be what we then read them to be in THE BIBLE. The day itself is not shorter, but the days of the judgement of GOD that will come on the entire earth were already shortened by GOD in the past, else no flesh would have been saved. But for the elect, the days of judgement were shortened; the length of the time period of judgement was already shortened by GOD to be just what we read in THE BIBLE.

Hebrews 9:27:

“As it is reserved to man to die once, and after this, judgement,”
